We pray in preparation for the Synod 2021-2023

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life
and not stray from the way of truth
and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.
Amen.

Walking Together - Our Synodal Journey

As part of our Diocesan 'Walking Together' we were joined online by Austen Ivereigh on 16th November to explore the topic: "Behind the global synod: why Pope Francis wants you to speak boldly and listen carefully." You can access the recording here, but well worth listening to it for some super inspiration <https://youtu.be/EFFyNjdn8rc>

Austen Ivereigh is a leading writer, journalist and commentator best known for his books on and with Pope Francis, and for his role in the media explaining the convictions of the Catholic Church. He is a Fellow in Contemporary Church History at Campion Hall, Oxford and a regular contributor to The Tablet.
