N.B. In respect of our parish, the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross has been transferred from 14th September to Sunday 17th September.

As this is the Parish 'Feast of Title', special refreshments will be served in the hall after 10.30am Mass that day by the Martha Group.

Advance notice: Home Mission Sunday – 17th September 2017 On the third Sunday of September the Catholic Church celebrates Home Mission Sunday. This is an opportunity to inspire Catholics and help them to engage with the mission of the Church, whilst supporting the work of the Home Mission Office. A retiring collection will be taken to support its work.

Often when we hear the word 'Mission' it is associated with the valuable work of helping people in other countries. Whilst important, we also need to share our faith with those we love, know and meet – right here on home turf. By donating to the second collection you will enable the Home Mission Office to produce resources, help parishes and equip people to share their faith with others.

SVP note: A letter has been received from our twinned SVP Conference at St. James Church Vayalar Kerala in South India and it is pinned to the SVP notice board in the hall. Interestingly, amongst other matters, it shows how the money our conference donates is used for the benefit of St. James' Parish.

The Crohn's & Colitis Fundraising Coffee Morning raised in excess of £4040. Thank you to everyone who supported this event.

Congratulations to Siobhan and Robert on the baptism of Elsa Tanaka Jabangwe yesterday (granddaughter of Sue and Tomás Savage).

The Art of Dying Well is a new website that offers a helping hand to those grappling with issues around death and dying. Based in the Catholic tradition but open to all, it features real-life stories about dealing with the journey through death to eternal life. The website was launched at the beginning of this month, the traditional month for remembering and praying for the dead: www.artofdyingwell.org

New to the Parish? If you have not done so, it would be really helpful if you could please fill in the form at the back of the church giving your name & details for Parish records? Thank you.

The Collection last Sunday:

Loose plate £155.61

Gift aided £618.00

Donation of £100.00

and the recent collection for the Catholic Children's Society raised £228.95.

Thank you
