Universal: Evangelisation: The Mission of Religious

That consecrated religious men and women may bestir themselves, and be present among the poor, the marginalized, and those who have no voice.

HOLY CROSS PARISH ACCOUNTS

The Parish's Financial Income and Expenditure Report for the year ended 31.3.18, which forms part of the very detailed reporting data submitted annually to the Plymouth Diocese Trust (St Boniface House), is now attached on the notice board in the side lobby.

There is also an extra page reporting Holy Cross' Common Investment Fund's investments position.

As Chairman of the Finance Committee I would as always be delighted to try and answer any questions or queries you may have about any aspects of the parish finances, and if I do not know the answer, I will gladly research the point for you.

Please either send an email to : simonpersonalmurray@gmail.com, or call me on 01822 853485 (Work number) should you have a query. I am sorry that you have not had this sooner. Thank you all for your patience and forbearance.
Best Wishes,
Simon Murray, October 2018

2019 Calendar, Windows Across the Diocese: in aid of the Catholic Children's Society (Plymouth). Calendars are always useful and make a great present and this is excellent value at just £5. With our support and help the profits made will enable the CCS to provide essential assistance to more children and their families. Now available to buy – see Ann Ruth.

Bonus Ball winner: on 20th October was Sarah Murray with ball number 49. She won £25. There were 41 subscribers that night so £16 went to Parish funds.
